

The 7th International Palaeontological Congress

New Eocene faunas from Southwestern Morocco: paleoenvironmental and paleogeographic implications

Over the past decade, Paleogene formations in the Sahara Desert in southwestern Morocco have yielded a wealth of fossil remains of marine and terrestrial vertebrates whose importance lies in the fact that they provide a link between Indo-Pakistani, Egyptian, and Northeastern American faunas.

Conveners:

- Pr. Zouhri Samir (samir.zouhri@univh2c.ma)

If you are interested in this symposium, please contact the conveners.